

SAVE Mission Statement

With the help of God, to voluntarily make ourselves available as instruments of agape love to the people of Sierra Leone, maintaining a healthy balance between social action and evangelism: a combination of relief and relationships.

SAVE Purposes

The specific purposes of SAVE are understood within the context of the Christian faith and community:

To minister to the spiritual, educational and physical needs of the people of Sierra Leone.

To provide support to existing Christian ministries in Sierra Leone.

To heighten public awareness of the great needs in Sierra Leone.

To encourage and facilitate personal and practical involvement in meeting the needs of Sierra Leone.

To commit time to pray for the church and the nation of Sierra Leone.

Dr. David Musa (SAVE Executive Director) was born in Mano, Sierra Leone. He came to know the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior through the ministry of Scripture Union of Sierra Leone (SUSL) and was a dynamic leader in the college Christian Union. On completion of his degree from the University of Sierra Leone (Fourah Bay College, Freetown) he ministered for two years full-time with the Scripture Union. After working with SUSL he pioneered the ministry of the Sierra Leone Fellowship of Evangelical Students (SLEFES, Sierra Leone's equivalent of Inter-Varsity, USA) and was its first full-time national worker. He currently lives in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and is a faculty member at Carthage College, Kenosha, teaching religious studies and director of the Spiritual Formation Institute at Eastbrook Church. David is married to Ndi and they have two Sons Ndiloma and Ukejeh, and a daughter Ngozi.

In 2009/10 SAVE is working to help improve village water supplies and health care facilities.

Background & Partners

During the height of the Sierra Leone rebel war of the 1990s a group of concerned Christians at Zionsville Fellowship in Zionsville, Indiana, started to pray about how to best help alleviate the suffering in Sierra Leone. Those early meetings, organized and inspired by Dr. David Musa and Zionsville Pastor Keith Ogorek, marked the beginning of SAVE as an organized group. In early 2007 SAVE registered as a non-profit corporation, 501(C)3.

Brother Francis Williams, of SLEFES, with his family in Freetown. He recently returned to Sierra Leone after post-graduate studies in the United Kingdom.

SAVE gave funds for a new roof on the village church at Kenema Vagboi and provides salary support to the village pastor until 2012.

Activities & Projects

Over the past several years SAVE has been working with national church leaders for improving facilities in the areas of church growth, elementary education, health care, and water supplies.

SAVE raised funds for a new Christian elementary school in Freetown that opened in 2008.

SAVE Partnering National Ministries

Wonderful national Christian leaders are spear-heading evangelism, providing discipleship training as well as facilitating humanitarian and developmental projects across the country:
